Sales Assistant (General) (Retail Sales Advisor) – NQF Level 3

SAQA ID: 99669 | Credits: 54 | Duration: 12-month | QCTO Learnership

1. Course Overview

The Occupational Certificate: Sales Assistant (General) (Retail Sales Advisor) prepares learners to work effectively in retail and wholesale environments. The role of a Sales Assistant or Retail Sales Advisor is critical in ensuring customer satisfaction, driving sales, and sustaining business profitability.

Learners will gain knowledge and practical skills in customer interaction, service excellence, sales processes, and advanced selling techniques. This qualification is aligned with the needs of the Wholesale and Retail sector, where skilled sales staff directly impact income generation, customer loyalty, and overall business growth.

2. Learning Outcomes

On completion of this programme, learners will be able to:

- Attend to customers and handle queries effectively.
- Provide customer service that builds and maintains customer relationships.
- Sell goods and services using professional and advanced sales techniques.

3. A Qualified Learner Will Be Able To:

- Greet, acknowledge, and interact with diverse customers to create a positive impression.
- Resolve customer queries and complaints in line with organisational processes.
- Apply principles of service excellence to strengthen customer loyalty.
- Conduct sales using the sales cycle, including needs identification, product presentation, overcoming objections, and closing sales.
- Apply advanced selling skills, including up-selling, cross-selling, and offering alternative products or services.

Entry Requirements

- NQF Level 1 with Mathematics and Communication.
- Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) may be applied for access to the qualification and the external summative assessment, subject to provider and workplace approval.

Occupational Certificate:

Sales Assistant (General) (Retail Sales Advisor) – NQF Level 3

SAQA ID: 99669 | Credits: 54 | Duration: 12-month | QCTO Learnership

4. International Comparability

- New Zealand: Comparable to the National Certificate in Retail (Customer Service and Sales Support) (Level 2), which focuses on customer interaction and service within retail environments.
- Australia: Similar to the Certificate II in Retail, which includes buyer behaviour, sales processes, and retail operations.

Conclusion: While international qualifications are broader, this programme is specifically designed for the South African context, focusing on occupational codes that cover customer interaction and retail sales advisory functions. The qualification ensures learners are equipped to perform effectively in both local and international retail settings.
