Entry Requirements

Learners must hold:

- A NQF Level 4 qualification (or equivalent), which may be achieved through a process of Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL).
- Foundational retail or business management knowledge is advantageous.

4. International Comparability

Retail management qualifications are globally recognised and range from skills-based certificates to advanced diplomas and postgraduate degrees.

The South African Occupational Certificate: Retail Manager aligns closely with the UK's Level 5 BTEC Higher National Diploma in Retail Management, sharing core focus areas such as:

- Retail operations and customer service
- Financial and supply chain management
- Retail marketing and strategy

Unlike the BTEC, the South African qualification includes a significant work experience component, ensuring learners gain practical exposure while mastering academic content.

5. Occupational Trainer – NQF Level 6 Certification

This qualification is registered as an Occupational Certificate at NQF Level 6 on the Occupational Qualifications Sub-Framework (OQSF).

It is suitable for progression from foundational qualifications such as:

- National Certificate in Wholesale and Retail Operations (NQF Level 4)
- Further Education and Training Certificates in retail-related fields.

Successful completion enables articulation into higher-level qualifications such as Advanced Occupational Certificates or Bachelor's Degrees in Retail or Business Management.

6. Potential Career Opportunities

Graduates of this programme can pursue diverse roles, including:

- Retail Store Manager / General Manager
- Franchise Owner or Manager
- Specialist Manager in Supply Chain, Logistics, or Operations
- Distribution Centre or Regional Retail Manager
- Specialist roles in Procurement, Marketing, Customer Experience, or Risk Management
- Senior leadership or Chief Executive positions within the retail sector.

7. Learning Options

The programme may be offered through:

- Full-time study at accredited training providers.
- Part-time or blended learning options, including online theory with workplace-based practical training.
- Workplace learning under the guidance of approved mentors or supervisors.

An external integrated summative assessment conducted by the QCTO Assessment Quality Partner is required for certification.

Learners must provide evidence of successful completion of all modules and a signed Statement of Work Experience to access the final assessment.
